Set in the South Capitol, this rare Prairie-style 4 bedroom, 4 bath home (inspired by Arts and Crafts designs of Frank Lloyd Wright) boasts double adobe, plaster walls, and wood floors. Details include stained glass, tile accents on fireplaces, decorative wrought-iron stairway railing, and other Southwestern touches. Creativity and workmanship are evident throughout. The living room, with beamed ceiling, centers around a large fireplace with access to the patio and gardens. The formal dining room includes a fireplace and hand-painted ceiling; perfect for entertaining. The gourmet kitchen with Viking stove, center island and custom wood cabinetry has a built-in Sub Zero refrigerator, wetbar and granite counter tops. The basement houses a wine cellar and pantry.
